Auction Terms & Conditions:

- Sellers will pay a £3 Lotting fee per item and NO COMMISSION. So whether your item sells for £3,000, or if it doesn't sell at all, you pay £3
- Buyers will pay 15% commission on the Hammer Price, no VAT
- We will be taking goods in from 8.30am to 5.30pm the Saturday prior to the sale. If you have a large item to sell it is imperative that you contact us prior to this date. We can arrange collection for a small fee
- Viewing will begin at 10.30am on the day of the sale
- The sale will begin at 2.30pm
- All unsold and all purchased goods MUST be removed by the Sunday evening of the sale
- We will be operating on a cash only basis for this sale – we can arrange card payments but it's not going to be straight forward and could result in a longer waiting time for you
- Please park safely and considerately
- All Bids are legally binding
- In order to place a bid, you MUST Register and obtain a paddle number

**If you are prepared to wait until after all Buyers have paid for their goods; we can pay you on the night, as opposed to 6-8 weeks after an online Auction. If you would rather not wait, please call in to Ripley Antiques in Axbridge Square from Tuesday onwards. Alternatively we can arrange a Bank Transfer.

You can pay for purchased goods once they have been processed. You are welcome to take your goods when you have paid as long as it doesn't disrupt the room. Please see a Porter for assistance.

In both circumstances, please make yourself comfortable with a coffee/tea and be prepared for a little wait. Thank you for your patience

- * Ripley Antiques reserve the right to refuse an item if it is deemed unsuitable for sale.
- * All goods MUST be collected by Sunday evening. In the event that they are not and no alternative arrangements have been agreed – Ripley Antiques reserve the right to dispose of the item either by Clearance Auction or Waste disposal and to make a reasonable charge to cover these costs.
